Newspaper Warfare. We have many subscribers and friends dispersed throughout the South and West, who send us odd numbers of various diray little Locofoco and Fire-cating journals, whose obscure and diliterate editors try their hands upon us, semi-occasionally.-Some of these men we notice-others we friends for not noticing them all. It must be borne in mind, that a candid, bold, and out spoken journal like ours, will arouse it. But these wen can't injure the circunow ordered from every State South of the Opposition meeting : l'otomae, and from the unprecedented ingrease in our circulation, we are forced to the conclusion that our paper is being uni vecsully read. Selling Slaves in Boston. The Boston News Letter, for June 30th 704, published by Bartholomew Green, opy of which has been preserved, ontains some amusing advertisements, in part from the quaintness of their style, and in part from the kind of articles advertised for sale. The two following are ----

"A Strong Lusty Waine Servant Maid's, tme for three years and a half, fit for any Household Service, to be disposed of Mr John Edwards, a Goldsmith, in Combill Hoston."

A second, which the editor of Hoston Courier says was "too common to be viewed at the present day, without regret and mornification," is in these words:--

"A Negro man, a Negro woman, and Neuro girl about 16 years old, to be sold Inquire at the Post Office in Cambill, mton and no further !"

These Negro sales, which were of daily occurence, were carried on by the pious Parties, who were making money by the operation. They exchanged Rum, holy. ing glasses, trinkets and heads, for Neurona on the Western Coast of Africa, and landed them at Boston, where they were sold out at two and three hundred dollars per head, according to size and quality, having at from one to five dollars a head where tolen from their parents! HERMITAGE, FART. 28, 1845. Your observations with regard to Mr. Buchanna are correct. He showed a count of more courses in the affair of the intrigue of Adams and Clay - did not do me justice in the expans e then made and I am sure about that did believe there was a perfect understanding between Adams and Clay about the President and the Secretary of State. This I am sure of But whether he viewed that there was any corraption in the case or not, I know not, but one no I do know that is, that he worked me to TO LET MY PRICEDS NAT IF I WAS PLEFTED, WOULD MAKE MR. CLAY SECRETARY OF STATE This to me, appeared GROSS CORREPTION, and I repealed it with that honest indignation which I thought it deserved.

Choosing Electors. A misapprehension prevails in some of or rounties, as to the objects beld in view in calling the State Convention, and the part that Convention will take in the appointment of District Electors. If we at Nashville, it is to appoint Delegator to a National Opposition Convention -- to sen the service of the people, that I bog leet two Electural Candidates for the State at large-- and to appoint Central Committees in the three divisions of the State, and otherwise to organize the Opposition party. The selection of District Electors, will be confined to the several Congressional Districts, as has uniformly been the case with all political parties, and and as should be the case. After the State Convention, the Districts will hold Conventions, and select their respective given as to the time and place.
